

MAX KOROVCHENKO

FRONT-END DEVELOPER

SUMMARY

I am a qualified front-end developer with a strong skill set in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. My honesty and integrity enable me to build trust with clients and colleagues alike, leading to more effective communication and collaboration. I am highly disciplined, with excellent time management skills, allowing me to consistently deliver projects on time. I am extremely detail-oriented. Additionally, my upper-intermediate level of English enables me to communicate effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds, which is crucial in today's globalized business world. Overall, I am confident that my skills and qualities make me a valuable asset to any team looking for a top-notch front-end developer.
